

J. The General Thesis Format

In writing the manuscripts, strictly proponents should observe the following:

A. Paper, Size, Quality, and Layout

- Paper should be white A4-size (8.27 x 11.69 in), white, substance 20. Page orientation should be portrait layout. Manuscript, figures, and tables layout should also in portrait and are placed on one side only of the paper. Back to back writing of manuscript, figures, and tables will not be accepted.
- Paper must be printed in portrait mode. Landscape mode is not allowed except for purposes of accommodating unusually large tables, illustrations and the like.

B. Language

- American English is the official language should be used in writing a thesis and it should be formal, objective and expository. All sentences must be comprehensive with correct grammar and spelling. Sentences and words stated in the form of idiomatic expressions, metaphors, subjective, slang and undefined abbreviations and acronym are not allowed to use in the text.

C. Documents

- All document drafts, including the thesis and other pertinent official documents to be included in the study, should be typewritten, free from erasures, and has uniform font when submitted. Text should be in black color, twelve-point size, and fonts; Arial. Submitted hand-written drafts and incomplete documents will not be accepted. Text should be always aligned on both the left and right margins or justified on both sides.

D. Margins

- Top - 1.25 inch (Header)
- Bottom - 1.25 inch (Footer)
- Right - 1.25 inch
- Left - 1.50 inches (Binding edge)
- All manuscript materials must fit within these margin requirements (including tables, figures and graphs)

E. Font Type and Size

- Font Type - Arial
- Font Size - 12
- A consistent font and size must be observed throughout the manuscript.
- Italics may be used for quotations and words in a foreign language.

F. Alignment

- Justified

G. Line Spacing

- Double-space throughout the paper, including the title page, body of the document, references, appendixes, footnotes, tables, and figures.
- Footnotes, endnotes, bibliographic entries, long quotations, items in lists, table of contents, and appendices may be single-spaced, i.e., if that style is recommended by the discipline.

H. Spacing after Punctuation

- Space once after commas, colons, and semicolons within sentences. Insert two spaces after punctuation marks that end sentences

I. Pagination

- Each page of the entire manuscript must be numbered except for the title page.
- Preliminary pages are numbered consecutively in lower-cased Roman numerals; the first page to be numbered is the Certificate of Endorsement and Approval which is marked ii.
- The text and back matters are numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals, beginning with 1 (unmarked) on the first page of the text.
- Page numbers must appear in the same location (lower right hand corner 1.25" below the top edge and 1.25" from the right edge)
- Page numbers must be consistent with the text in font size and style.
- Every chapter begins on a new page